

Becoming a Notary Public in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania is not a complex process, however we know that the choices for your education and supplies are numerous and confusing. Let us take a minute to explain the differences and similarities.

Pennsylvania's Department of State, Notary Division is the governing body for all Pennsylvania Notaries Public. They approve all notaries and enforce the educational requirements according to state law. Each approved provider of the mandatory education must submit their courses for approval by the Notary Division. These courses must contain the same pertinent information required by the State Department and the Notary law. Therefore all approved providers and their courses contain the same information regardless of presenter, organization or provider.

The process of applying for a commission is also the same. The application must be forwarded to your local State Senator for execution. They forward it to the State Department through legislative channels for final approval. Again regardless of the provider or organization or even yourself the process is the same.

Marketing techniques and general advertising practices over the years has created the impression that some organizations are the governing entity or at least affiliated in some capacity with the State Department or the county governments. This is simply not true. The final processing of the applications is in the hands of the Commonwealth of PA State Department. They will send you the final paperwork, which you will either execute on your own or send it to your processor of choice for execution.

As a Department of State approved educator; we provide the mandatory education course for new applicants. We offer the same as the other vendors and organizations. The "prices" you pay an in state, out of state or national "membership organization" to handle this for you includes the fees, your bond and equipment and sometimes they include "perks". Mostly, this price includes your "membership fee". You pay those high prices for a "membership". We are not a membership organization. Therefore you pay less, much less.

Handling your commission processing is also quite simple but again we offer you different choices. We believe it is your commission and you should control it from start to finish so we encourage you to handle the process on your own. We will guide you through each step of the appointment process and fix any problems or help handle any concerns you run into. If you would like us to handle that we offer a commission processing package that includes processing your application, executing your bond and acquiring your equipment at one low price. It is your choice. Again our price either way is the lowest you will find.

Additionally, we offer many more educational courses. These are offered online and on a regular basis through out the Commonwealth in a live seminar setting for better comprehension and more information exchange. They include, Accredited Signing Agent, DMV Agent and E-Notary, and more. All of our instructors are hands on notaries; they are not employed as teachers. Each one of them is successful in their own businesses, as Notaries Public, Signing Agents and DMV clerks here in Pennsylvania.

If you are interested in becoming a Notary Public, please visit our web page, call us at the numbers below or drop us an email at info@panotaryacademy.com. All of our courses are listed there. You can pay on line with the security of Pay Pal or pay at the door. Credit cards will only be accepted on line and cash or checks are accepted at the door. Once you have chosen a course location please remember to pre-register.

The mandatory required course to apply to be a Notary Public is Basic Notary 101. This course is a three hour course covering the law, our functions and general knowledge of a Notary Public. If you would like us to handle the processing of your commission also, you may choose to purchase that as an add-on at the same time. Again, you always have a choice to pay online or at the door.

After you have attended the Basic Notary 101 Course we will present you with your certificate. We thank you for your interest PA Notary Academy and if you have any questions or concerns please contact us.
